Reform Gladiators Coming!

There is no greater or more truly independent paper in the country, than the Chicago Tribune. Here is what it has to say of the so-called "People's Independent" platform of California:

[illegible] party of California is to consolidate and three-fourths of [illegible] this unobtrusive, abandoned [illegible] is an unprincipled, it would not be common [illegible] judicious statesmanship [illegible] and about as follows:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the State Government of California to abolish [illegible] the part of a [illegible] State Patent.

This remarkable power, when the Independents get control of it, is to be used to distribute the projected gains in such a [illegible] irrigation not anywhere in the State, but [illegible] prize of railroad building and fleecing stockholders. (The reason will please such) [illegible] upward dozen tickets. In order to make sure of comprehending the work of preparing which is the Independent organization which has packed the State government to [illegible] (we [illegible] Their platform does not [illegible] the premises words, but believe, that it is the duty of the State to arrange [illegible] Chinamen, fishermen, [illegible] coolie pigs, and coal, and that [illegible] soon, but this is not specified as to [illegible] Cobdenites are worse for the [illegible] raising. What treats vagueness about the [illegible] and substance of all "pernicious" words and to undermine [illegible] dependent platforms. The more the people look at it, the more their wonder will grow that such low small shelves should carry [illegible] dependents among, for [illegible] their number. Omniscience itself says [illegible] obliged [illegible] impotence—is thrown in [illegible] by the organizers of these [illegible] Independent [illegible] spirit and [illegible]

The robbery outside in the platform [illegible] which the Northwestern article [illegible] fronting. I pass on to the [illegible] assumption that the [illegible] shareholders can be relied upon to [illegible] government interests in an unselfish [illegible] economy and honesty. That they would not rob if they could, and [illegible] Experience has proved this in every country, from the Indian Empire to the Mormon [illegible] simple. The dollar expensive of the [illegible] wasting has provoked [illegible] other some political efforts, only [illegible] directed and unintended effects of which [illegible] have repudiated and [illegible] selves, more and more, the improving [illegible] condition of mental and moral [illegible] rooms, in contradistinction to political [illegible] In proportion as they have done this, they have thrown [illegible] men can scarcely appreciate as well how [illegible] work the whole chain complained [illegible] Their political failures have so [illegible] numerably obstructed their materials [illegible] ces. The latter have attracted great attention abroad. The profounder European observer of American affairs, Professor Vonckhist, so that his private [illegible] of Freiburg, [illegible] Deutschland [illegible] and Washington Standen's [illegible] talks with Hallahan and Kearney [illegible] Colonel Hutchen of England is now preparing a monograph upon the Granger movement, which they believe will appear [illegible] give an [illegible] picture of the astonishing improvement and the well-being of the American farmers, and to the non-political efforts of the Patrons of Husbandry. But while other classes turned to use [illegible] State Governments as instruments, [illegible] failed. Their attempts [illegible] legislatively and [illegible] Illinois and Wisconsin. It is plain [illegible] that the Granger movement [illegible] Iowa. Whatever [illegible] which they have recovered [illegible] are [illegible] Democrats, and [illegible] strife at present [illegible] is true that in Illinois [illegible] particularly in State of [illegible] monopolies, and that [illegible] has been grievously oppressed by monopolies.

But the [illegible] of this [illegible] by competition, and of supply and [illegible] and most [illegible] conferences. To take the case of railroads: If [illegible] is farmer [illegible] than enough unemployed capital [illegible] railroad whenever at will pay, and [illegible] railroad [illegible] now being constructed by private [illegible] from the public by grinding taxation. State supervision should [illegible] from the public by grinding taxation. State supervision should [illegible] the old [illegible] law doctrine that [illegible] compensation [illegible] counsel argue only reasonable [illegible] When it exceeds this it does far more harm than good.

An Existentic Utterance.

A dinner was tendered to Attorney General [illegible] by certain of his friends in New York city, which [illegible] needs. His note to that effect concealed [illegible] sentence vouchsafed to be strangers.

Strike:

By [illegible] subjects, [illegible] Realities [illegible] followed the [illegible] of interested enterprises, and [illegible] are people who [illegible] this, but still I insist that, by me [illegible] winner, they reason now with [illegible] economy, and eschew extravagance with [illegible]

— The Shah of Persia once decreed a Widow to make extra hair not still [illegible] obs in this connection. He died, and [illegible] successor came at the time of [illegible]. The Shah asked why, to which [illegible] answered: "Because you [illegible] that [illegible] you don't know to [illegible] knows far [illegible] thousand [illegible] of, [illegible] he'll never come back."

"Ah, but suppose they should come back?"

"Then [illegible] else [illegible] is [illegible]."

— A friend [illegible] announces that [illegible] of John Radford, [illegible] who was lost, three years ago, [illegible] trying to ascend Mount Elsbar with [illegible] Kings [illegible] from [illegible] book of the whole [illegible] of the [illegible] journals. The boy is thoroughly [illegible] saved.

— A capital [illegible] was given at the [illegible] complimentary [illegible] in the [illegible] good [illegible] Sleighing Society of Chicago. "The [illegible] practice this [illegible] help pay for [illegible] what neighbors might [illegible] pay for."

— "Figures will not [illegible]," is an old saying, and we believe a well-credited [illegible] that [illegible] thousandth [illegible] Pips, [illegible] stiff, tailless [illegible] silver, and orthatworst [illegible] played [illegible] jokes now all the papers.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Chartrand's Claim for Damages Passed to Second Reading—Bills Allowed, Etc.

The Finance Committee's report of the proceedings of the Board closed with the following recommendations:

Upon reassembling, Mr. Haley opposed all bills, for the purpose of making explanations. He said that about a year ago [illegible] had been called to a petition [illegible] were represented as worthy of assistance. He called upon them and found that the representations were not apprehensive correct, and he directed that supplies to the amount of $10 per month be furnished to the family. He had since learned privately, that this people had several hundred dollars in the bank, and had ordered the [illegible] to cease until that matter could be investigated. He [illegible] opposed, he said, to the subscription, that [illegible] acted of charity, but did not know but that he [illegible] opposed to cease until the matter could be [illegible]. The woman of the house, Mrs. James Logan, appeared before the Board by direction of Mr. Harvey, to explain matters. She stated that the girl [illegible] was not any money that they paid in the bank; but she refused to be sworn in the matter, saying that she was opposed to taking an oath on general principles. Mr. Chairman, she did not want to [illegible] would be a wrong to [illegible] request, pregnant with [illegible] Sheriff Harvey then [illegible] permission to be sworn. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Logan appeared before the Board and made oath that all they had done was in good faith, and that they never had any money in bank, and that never had any claim to the same. The statement of course relieved the minds of the Supervisors Harvey.

ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

In the matter of Road Surveyor [illegible] 45, Mr. Brodblatt, township running from Chabot to Hayward, the Board proceeded to take sealed ballots. The ballots of said boards had, Lilfoot was allowed $250; J. Marshall, $1; J. Bichico, $1; J. M. Gross, $1; Heinz & Mallard, $1; Rosa King, $1; Mendes, $1; J. K. Erlos, $1; Mr. Halverson, $1.

Supervisor Bozell offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the audit known as the Alvarez Township Road Act, be, and the same is hereby abolished, and that the amount in said fund, $3,371, be appropriated as follows:

Murray District road fund	$ 426
Russell District road fund	365
Summit District road fund	165
Temescal District road fund	138
Human District road	284
Total	$ 1,435

Said was the amount left on hand after paying said old warrants. On motion, the resolution was adopted.

The report of Peter Dillmann, Overseer of Chimney Roads District, was received and the bill allowed, $162 these allowed.

In the matter of assessing damages on Robb Street, by Lot 155, Murray Township, running from Greene's Blacksmith shop to road from Livermore to Altamont. On motion E. Autrecosta was awarded $10 damages for land taken. The Supervisors of Murray and Altamont road district were directed to tender him that amount.

Communication: Supervisor Smith took the petition of S. E. Whitcher, Assessor of Oakland township, for extension of sewer [illegible] This petition was [illegible] people had several hundred dollars in the bank, and had ordered the [illegible] to cease until that matter could be investigated. "I shall not be opposed," said the Supervisor, "that I was doing a deed of charity, but I do not know but that I have been supporting a pleased bonds holder." The woman of the house, Mrs. James Logan, appeared before the Board by direction of Mr. Harvey, to explain matters. She stated that the girl [illegible] was not any money that they paid in the bank; but she refused to be sworn in the matter, saying that she was opposed to taking an oath on general principles. The Chairman notified her that as [illegible] would be a wrong to [illegible] request, pregnant with [illegible] Sheriff Harvey then [illegible] permission to be sworn. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Logan appeared before the Board and made oath that all they had done was in good faith, and that they never had any money in bank, and that never had any claim to the same.
